VISITOR ATTRACTIONS

Breckinridge County Historical Society Museum reopened in the historic Taylor House in Hardinsburg. Located on Third Street, the building houses an important collection of historical memorabilia and artifacts from the county's history. The museum is the home and meeting place of the Breckinridge County Historical Society. The building is open April-December 9AM - 12PM on Saturdays. The building can be opened on request, call 270-756-2347 or 270-756-2867.

Breckinridge Community Center in Hardinsburg offers a 9-hole golf course. Call 270-756-2841 for more info.

Cloverport Museum - Located in a restored freight depot, the museum contains many artifacts of Cloverport's historic past. Open Sundays 1-4 P.M.; free (April-October).

Rough River Dam State Resort Park is located near the dam creating a 4,860 acre lake. Rough River Dam SRP offers some of the finest opportunities for fishing and water sports in the state. The park includes a 40-room lodge and 17 cottages. There is a 167-seat dining room, two conference rooms, swimming pool, gift shop, and boat marina. The park is served by a 3,200 ft. paved/lighted airstrip, miniature golf course and a nine-hole par three golf course. A public beach is maintained on the lake. A state-operated campground is located below the dam. Call 1-800-255-PARK or 270-257-2311 for more information.

Yellowbank Wildlife Management Area - Steep to moderate sloping woodlands, hardwood forest, and flat river bottom farmlands compose this state-operated facility. There are several miles of maintained roads in area and miles of old roads for hiking and sightseeing. Self-guided demonstration area on tract 3 features habitat types, prairie grasses, and wetlands. Rabbit, quail, squirrel, dove, raccoon, groundhog, deer, turkey, and some waterfowl inhabit the area. Fishing in area ponds and a ramp on Yellowbank Creek provide access to Ohio River. There is a waterfowl refuge along the Ohio River. A walking archery course is available for practice shooting. Information and maps available at check station. Call 270-547-6856 for more info.
